

Call for Nominations 2010 Bernardine Yackman Award

2010 Bernardine Yackman Award To be Presented Wednesday June 9, 2010.

The general public is invited to submit their candidates.

Deadline for nominations is April 15, 2010.

The nominees do not have to be BPW Greater Sudbury club members. Please note that nominations in all other Awards categories are open to the public as well as club members.

The Sudbury Business and Professional Women's Club established the Bernardine Yackman Award in 1985.

The award, which is bestowed annually, honours a woman in the city of Greater Sudbury who has made a significant contribution to the community in one or more of the following areas:

- In elected or appointed office
- In a religious or political organization
- In volunteer service
- And/or by acting as a role model in her place of employment.

This award is named after the late Bernardine Yackman, a woman who set an example of commitment and service to her community. She was a longstanding member of BPW Sudbury, and served as club president in the mid-70s. She also served a term on the BPW Ontario provincial board as BPW District 6 director, with responsibility for northeastern Ontario. Bernardine Yackman was the first female elected as a school board trustee. Bernardine was respected and admired for her dedication to community work. She chaired the Sudbury Board of Education, and worked as a volunteer with the Sudbury and District Red Cross, TV Ontario, and her church, Christ the King. She was also involved in municipal politics.

A panel of judges selects the award winner from all of the nominations submitted and, the recipient of the Bernardine Yackman Award is presented with a certificate of recognition during a gala Awards evening. A $100 donation is also made in the
